

Episodes

Episode 70 - link here

An overview of COVID from national ID expert (frequently featured on CNN) - Dr. Carlos Del Rio.

Dr. Del Rio does a fantastic job of helping us understand this virus and answers many pertinent questions about the pandemic.

Episode 71 and 72 - links here and here.

We interview two physicians in the heart of pandemic in Milan, Italy - Drs. Ripa [ID] and Monti[ICU].

We can't begin to describe how powerful it was to hear from folks on the front lines. Their insight and wisdom is timeless.

Next week, we will release an episode that describes a single patient's journey to the diagnosis with local experts - Peter Chin Hong, Brian Block, and Neeta Thakur.

All these episodes are available on the iPhone podcasts app, Spotify, Google Play and most podcast apps.

Illness script

We've also created two illness scripts for COVID here and here.

These are available on our website, and our phone app.

Video for family and friends -- here

Our co-founder, Reza Manesh, created an incredibly helpful video for our patients, families and friends to help them understand this pandemic from the perspective of a layperson.

The future

We are creating more content soon, and will have a dedicated COVID page on our website by next week.

We'll be sure to share the link with you then.
